Membership Assessment Criteria

Prospective members should have an existing interest in the Tasmanian Antarctic sector and current business activities and contacts with the sector, which they are willing to employ for the benefit of the organization and other members.

TPN assesses all applications for membership against the following criteria:

- Does the applicant have a demonstrable interest in the Tasmanian Antarctic sector?
- Can the applicant verify their business interest in the Tasmanian Antarctic sector?
- What benefit would the applicant provide to the goals and objectives of the TPN?
- Does the applicant operate in or from and have a physical presence in Tasmania?
